

WINGBEATS:

Exercises & Practice in Poetry

Edited by Scott Wiggerman &
David Meischen

WINGBEATS AT THE TWIG

Four Sunday Afternoons, Four Poets, Four Workshops

Presented by  Dos Gatos Press  & The Twig Bookshop

July 24	Naomi Shihab Nye	New Combinations: Nouns and Verbs
August 7	Wendy Barker	A Crack in the Cup
August 21	Cyra S. Dumitru	The Mind's Eye: Listening as Seeing
September 4	Jenny Browne	Love Letter to a Stranger

All workshops are 3–5 p.m. at The Twig Bookshop, 200 E. Grayson Street, Suite 124, San Antonio — at the former Pearl Brewery on the Museum Reach of the Riverwalk.

Participants: Please bring a pen or pencil and paper or a notebook.

Naomi Shihab Nye has worked as a visiting writer all over the world. Her work includes thirty books of poems, as well as eight anthologies of poetry for teens, including Is This Forever or What? Poems & Paintings from Texas.

Wendy Barker is the author of a novel in prose poems, Nothing Between Us: The Berkeley Years, as well as Poems from Paradise and Way of Whiteness. She is Poet-in-Residence and a professor of English at U.T.–San Antonio.

Cyra S. Dumitru is the author of the poetry collections What the Body Knows, Listening to Light, and remains. She teaches poetry writing and composition courses at St. Mary's University in San Antonio.

Jenny Browne is the author of two poetry collections, At Once and The Second Reason. A former James A. Michener fellow in poetry at U.T.–Austin, she teaches creative writing at Trinity University in San Antonio.

Dos Gatos Press 512-467-0678 www.dosgatospress.org

The Twig Bookshop 210-826-6411 <http://thetwig.indiebound.com>